Air Routes.

Four hundred workers, according to despatches from Diredawa on May 23rd, are now busy on the airfield there, which is expected to be in an efficient condition within a few days. The Debra Marcos airfield is also being enlarged and improved to accommodate even heavy planes. The Addis Ababa field will be given particular attention, with a draining system to ensure service even during the height height of the rainy season. At the present time there is intensive air movement between Addis Ababa and Asmara, twenty to thirty military planes arriving each day.
